Headline:
Mainly dry with some warm sunny spells.

Today:
A bright day with sunny spells for most, although the east coast rather cloudy at times. Cloud is expected to bubble up through the morning with perhaps a few afternoon showers developing. Feeling warm in any sunshine with light winds. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Some late sunny then clear spells but rather a lot of cloud around at times, especially across eastern parts later in the night when a few heavy showers are possible. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Friday:
Some bright or sunny spells but generally a rather cloudy day with occasionally heavy showers in the east developing more widely for the afternoon. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Unsettled through the weekend and Monday with showers or longer spells of rain, heavy and perhaps thundery at times. Still feeling warm in any sunshine with mainly light winds.
